

MY DOG ATE MY HOMEWORK

Diane Kordas ©1999

I've got a dog that chews on everything
The more he chews the more he sings
He chews on sneakers, he chews on socks
What really makes him want to rock
He sneaks in my room and into my books
He goes berserk and then he eats my homework!
I tell my teacher that my dog ate my homework
He's a singin' fool, he doesn't know the trouble
That I'm in at school.
My dog ate my homework, he's a singin' fool
He doesn't know the trouble that I'm in at school.
When he eats math, he gives one plus one growl
When he eats English, he gives a yip and says his vowels
And when he eats Science, it's an experiment
But when it's French he eats he doesn't make any sense!
Chorus

Do you have a dog that chews on paper? My friend has a dog that entirely ate her address book! Send me a picture and a story about your dog or other pet, I'd love to hear about it!
